cooking with cast iron

A cast iron skillet is perfect for preparing a satisfying supper, a baked Brie, a hot dip or a tasty dessert in a snap. Ready to serve hot from the oven, barbecue or even the campfire, will retain heat longer while you enjoy.

Hand wash with mild soap to preserve the natural non-stick properties in order to enjoy the skillet for years to come. Our skillets are pre-seasoned, but as with all cast iron, they should be washed, dried and then re-oiled ready for the next use. This will reduce the chances of rusting as well. Very important also to never use a metal knife or utensil in the cast iron skillet, to avoid damaging the natural non-stick finish of the seasoned skillet.
